What will the life be like if you have a robot at home? Imagine this. He will do everything that you order him to do. For example, before you sleep, tell him that you like rice and meat. The next morning he cooks those for your breakfast. After you finish breakfast, just leave the dishes there. He will wash them quickly, too.

Then, the robot flies you to school. The traffic problems today will not appear. It uses no gas and helps clean the air. Besides you don't need to go out shopping by yourself. The robot will help buy what you want from on-line markets, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. With a robot, you will see many changes in your life.
