The fourth Thursday of November is Thanksgiving. It is a very special day – a day to be thankful, a day for families and friends to get together.

What are you thankful for this year? Are you thankful that you have great parents who love you and take care of you? Are you thankful that you are healthy when Covid19 happens in 2020? Or, are you thankful that you have a lot of wonderful time with your teachers and classmates at school? On this day, offer thanks to your family, teachers, classmates, and friends. Let them know that you care about them. Thanksgiving will be a time of joy and happiness for you.

Also, you can be thankful to yourself because you do your best to be a good boy/girl. You can be thankful to everyone who helps you, encourages you, and takes care of you, such as crossing guiders on your way to school. Always say "Please!", "Thank you.", and "Sorry." to everyone when necessary. Be thankful and be happy all the time.
