Fun with Guinness World Records

What is Guinness World Records? Guinness World Records is like a big book about people doing special things. It could be having the longest hair, jumping for the longest time, or even making the biggest pizza! These records show us how special and interesting our world can be.

Let me tell you three interesting world records! First, there's a record for dancing 24. A girl named Lily danced for 123 hours without stopping! You can't even see it in a non-stop dance party! Next, let's talk about the longest river in the world. The Nile River is the champion here! It goes through many countries in Africa, like Egypt and Sudan. The Nile is so long that if you started walking at its beginning, you might need to walk for a really, really long time to get to the end! 25, there are records that are not only about time or length but are just funny! Have you ever heard about the record for the most people dressed as penguins? Yes, you heard it right – penguins! In a big, cold place called London, many people wore penguin costumes and walked like ducks together. It must be very funny!

So, there you have it – dancing, rivers, and penguins, all in Guinness World Records! These show that people can do amazing and special things to make the world a more interesting place.

六、閱讀測驗:每題 2 分，共 10 分

I.

Hello, I'm Remy, and I work as a chef at Gusteau's. The other cooks are all nice to me, even though I'm a rat. At first, they were worried because I'm even smaller than a knife. Besides that, they also cared about food safety. So, before I start cooking, I wash my hands many times, and I stay away from my rat friends when I work.

But you know what makes me a good chef? It's my super good sense of smell. I have the best nose of all the cooks, and it helps me cook wonderful food. Lots of people come to Gusteau's just for my steak. Now, we have more customers than before. Gusteau's is now the most popular restaurant in town, and I'm the happiest rat chef in the world.

Exploring AI

Today, let's go into the world of AI, or Artificial Intelligence. AI is like having a super smart friend that can learn and do cool things. Let's find out more about it!

1. AI in Games:

Imagine playing a video game where the characters can think on their own! The game uses Artificial Intelligence to make the characters smart and react to what you do. It's like you are playing with real people!

2. Smart Speakers:

Siri on iPhone is one example of AI. It can understand what you say and help you with all kinds of things, from telling jokes to answering your questions. AI makes it smart and a good listener.

3. Learning Friends:

Have you tried apps that change based on how well you're doing? They use AI to understand how you learn and make the apps more fun just for you to learn better. It's like having a learning buddy that knows what you need!

4. Robot Helpers:

In some places, robots are using AI to help people. Some robots can clean your floor all by themselves, and others can even help doctors do important works. They use AI to find out what needs to be done – like having a robot friend lending a helping hand!

So, AI can understand, learn, and do things on their own, making our world more fun. The more we learn about AI, the more we can use it to make our lives better and more interesting.
