五、閱讀測驗(每題2分)

Dear Tim,

Because Grandma is very sick in the hospital, your mom and I need to go there to take care of her tonight. Please make dinner yourself and do the dishes after dinner. By the way, the trash truck comes at about a quarter to eight. Remember to take out the trash then. Your teacher told me you did very well on an English test. We are so proud of you. I bought a gift for you this afternoon. Guess what?! An English book! I know you like reading a lot and you will like it. By the way, your mom said she couldn't find her cellphone this morning. She looked for it all day long today. If you see it, please let me know.

When my parents went out for dinner last night, I was studying at home for my English test. Half an hour later, there was a terrible smell in the air and I thought there was something wrong. I went out of my house and saw fire coming out of my neighbor's kitchen. I shouted "Fire! Fire!" but no one heard it or came out. I called 119 right away. I also rang my neighbor's doorbell, but there was still no response.

Then I broke the window and got into the house. I found my neighbor, Uncle Sam, was still sleeping in his room. I woke him up and took him out of the house. The fire was getting heavier and heavier. Luckily, the firemen came and put out the fire quickly. I was dirty and tired, but I was happy Uncle Sam didn't get hurt. When my parents came back home, Uncle Sam told them the whole story. My parents were happy because they had a great boy!
