六、閱讀測驗

(32~34)

I will never forget the day in the park. It was a sunny Friday. The day was just another day in my life. After school, when I was walking home, I stopped to look at a shoe store. I looked inside, and felt sorry for myself. I really wanted to have a pair of shoes for my birthday. I knew my mother would buy me new shoes if she could. But I also knew that she had little money. I kept on walking and soon came to the park. There I saw a girl in the wheelchair. The girl moved the wheels with her hands because she had no feet. I looked down at my own feet. I knew it was much better to be without shoes than without feet. I was wrong for feeling so sad. I went home and smiled.

Dr. Swan: Hello, Lynn. How can I help you?

Lynn: I was hit in the mouth when I was playing basketball.

Dr. Swan: Oh, that's too bad! Let me check. Now, open your mouth, please.

(Lynn opens her mouth.)

Dr. Swan: Well... you're lucky. I need to work on only two teeth. I'll fill them first and then give you some medicine to take after meals. Is that OK with you?

Lynn: Much more than OK! I thought they would have to be taken out. But can I eat anything after you do it? I have a date at seven o'clock tonight.

Dr. Swan: Don't worry. You can have soft food after 30 minutes, and then anything after four hours.

Lynn: Thank you so much, Dr. Swan.

Lily has some trouble with her feet. One of Lily's feet is bigger than the other one. So, it was hard to find the right shoes. Her friend, Sally, found a good shoemaker in town. She told Lily about it. One day, Lily went to the shoemaker's store for a new pair of shoes.

It was an old store. Lily was surprised when she saw the shoemaker's gray hair, and asked, "Why are you still making shoes at your age?" He answered, "I want to help people like you. There is no way for people to change their bodies, but they can change their shoes. They need a pair of comfortable shoes, but they can't make them by themselves." Then, Lily told the shoemaker about her problem. He promised to give her a pair of shoes in her size in two weeks.

Two weeks later, Lily went to the store to get her new shoes. The shoes fit her well, and she was really happy about it. She said, "Thank you! I want to help others like you one day."
