1. M: We have cooked some meat. You can eat either fish or pork.
2. M: The power was cut because of the typhoon.
3. M: You don't have to print all the pictures out. You can store them on your computer.
4. M: My sister likes neither hiking nor camping. Actually, she doesn't really like outdoor activities.
5. M: I am going to graduate from senior high school this June. I am so excited.
6. I am feeling so lonely without my pet dog, Lucky.
7. Mom, can we watch TV? There is an important basketball game now.
8. Nancy's mom would not let her go to the night market.
9. Where should I put the medicine you just got from the hospital?
10. W: Jack, look at the red line. It tells you that you shouldn't park here.
M: Well, it doesn't matter. We'll just park here for a few minutes, and we will leave soon.
W: It is true we won't be here for a long time, but it may cause someone inconvenience. Why don't we park right in front of the supermarket? We can walk from there to the gym.
M: Fine. Let's do it.
Q: What is the woman trying to tell Jack?
11. M: Hello, this is lost-and-found. How may I help you?
W: I left my purse on the train. Has anyone found it?
M: Let me check our lost-and-found. Yes, we have found two purses today. One is red, and the other is blue.
W: Mine is the red one.
M: Can you tell me more about it?
W: It is the one with a pink dog on its front. And inside the purse, there is a picture of my whole family.
M: There it is. You may come to Main Station anytime to get it back in person.
W: Thank you so much.
Q: Where will the woman pick up her lost purse?
12. M: I saw Jessica do some shopping in the department store. But it is a pity we won't see her for a while.
W: What do you mean?
M: Don't you know she is moving to Canada?
W: She is? Why? I had no idea about that.
M: I thought you two always keep in touch, so you would know about that. Her dad got a new job in Canada, so the whole family is going there with him.
W: Oh. That is too bad. I haven't had a chance to say goodbye to her.
Q: What can we know from the conversation?
