Dear Wendy,

How are you? Thank you for sending a cute postcard to me. It was sweet of you! I held a birthday party at home with my family and friends last Saturday. It was a sunny day, I was hanging the clothes when the earthquake happened. It was five after seven in the morning. My parents and my sisters were sleeping in their bedrooms. I couldn't move at all because I was too scared. Five minutes later, everyone got up and started preparing everything for the party. I decided to make a cake for the party this time. After mixing the eggs and flour together, I put it in the oven at half past eight. Then, I made some puddings and finished making it in thirty minutes. When I put the puddings in the refrigerator, the cake was ready, too. My sisters were sweeping and mopping the floor in the living room at half past ten. My mother was making lunch when my friends rang the doorbell. It was five to twelve. The party started at a quarter after twelve. Everyone enjoyed the food and kept talking to each other. What a great party! Hope to see you soon in Taoyuan.

Your friend,
Sharon
