If you cannot live without your car, Zurich might be the last city you want to visit. In Zurich, people are welcome, 36 cars are not! Over the past 20 years, this city has used smart ways 37. One is to keep the same total number of parking spaces. Some are unhappy that 38. That is just what the city has in mind: If people find parking spaces more difficult, they will drive less.

Besides, the total number of cars in the city is counted. Over 3,500 little computers are put under Zurich roads to check the number of cars that enter the city. If the number is higher than the city can deal with, the traffic lights will be kept red to stop more cars entering the city. So drivers have to stop and wait until there are fewer cars in the city. Now, you may wonder 39. The answer is simple: The city wants to make more space for its people.

36. (A) or (B) but (C) so (D) if
 37. (A) to make traffic lighter (B) to invite people to visit (C) to make itself a famous city (D) to build more parking spaces

Czech people arrived in the area of middle Europe around the 6th century. Kings came and went, and finally the area became a part of the Austro-Hungarian empire from 1526 to 1918. After that, the country was known as Czechoslovakia, which had the Czech and Slovak people in one country. In 1989, Czechoslovakia was built with Vaclav Havel as its first president. In 1993, the Czech Republic and Slovakia became two different countries.

The Czech Republic is landlocked, which means the country does not touch any sea or ocean. There are two parts: Bohemia and Moravia. In Bohemia lies the capital city, Prague, with a population of 1.6 million people. The city is a popular tourist destination for foreign visitors. Moravia is filled with beautiful mountains and trees. The country also has the most castles in Europe.

The Czech language is a Slavic language, like Russian. However, it still uses the Roman alphabet, not the Cyrillic alphabet, like Russian does. The most famous food there is not food at all but a drink. Czechs drink a lot of beer, which is cheaper than bottled water at restaurants.
